

PhotoShop Questions About Layering Images

1) How do you check the size of an image in PhotoShop?

2) Finish this sentence: The more pixels there are in an image, _____

3) How is PhotoShop similar to a word processor?

What tool can you use to select a layer before you cut, copy or paste the layer?

4) If you make a mistake when selecting an image area, how do you get rid of area of selection (ie. the mask)?

What is the keyboard shortcut?

5) After having made a selection, what are two ways of copying?

What are two ways of pasting?

6) How do you select everything?

What is the keyboard shortcut?

7) To shrink or enlarge an image in PhotoShop, you select the Move tool, and to the menu and click _____ and a bounding box appears.

Which button do you press to see the “bounding box” of a PhotoShop image?

8) Why do you press SHIFT when resizing an image in PhotoShop?

What happens if you don't press SHIFT when resizing an image?

9) After shrinking the image, what keyboard button do you click to make the selection

10) The background layer stays _____

11) What must keyboard button do you press after you have resized a layer (shrunk or enlarged)?

12) In the layers window you double click on a layer to rename it. Why is that a good practice?

13) What 2 things can you change with the brush?

14) What does a hard brush do?

15) What can you do if you make a mistake

16) What does the soft brush do?

- 17) What does the Navigator tool do?
- 18) To make a soft brush, you make it _____ Hardness
- 19) Why don't you use a hard brush when you get close to image?
- 20) How do you duplicate a layer?
- 21) How do you put one layer behind the other layer?
- 22) What is the background layer of PhotoShop like?
- 23) How do you rotate an image?
- 24) (not in the tutorial) How do you hide a layer?