

Adobe Premiere Pro Questions

Based on the Video Tutorial, Basic Editing Using Premiere Pro

- 1) When you click New Project in Premiere, where is the default location of that project?
- 2) Where do you redirect Premiere Pro to save your file?
- 3) Where don't you save your Premiere Pro file?
- 4) What are file formats used (in our school)?
- 5) Why does it take a while for Premiere Pro to start when you make a New Project?
- 6) Why is it a good idea to create a separate folder entitled, footage?
- 7) What is the timeline?
- 8) What is the Program window?
- 9) How do you bring your video files in the Project?
- 10) How do you expand your video footage
- 11 a) When do you slide toward the smaller mountains, what do you see in the timeline?
11 b) When you slide towards the larger mountains, what do you see on the timeline?
- 12) If you see a gap between clips on the timeline, how do you get rid of it?
- 13) What are two uses of the Source Monitor?
- 14) What is the format of the timecode?
- 15) The clip that is on the top (Video track 2) is the clip that you see
- 16) How do you export your edited video?
- 17) What 2 things does Output Name do?
- 18) 13:27 What does clicking Export do?